

Rockingham County
Partnership for Children

MEMO

DATE: February 8, 2022
TO: Child Care Facility Directors
FROM: Adina Tompkins, NC Pre-K Coordinator
SUBJECT: NC Pre-K Interest Meeting

Childcare facilities interested in the NC Pre-Kindergarten Program are invited to attend a required information session on Friday, March 4, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. via zoom. The goal of this session is to share information regarding the NC Pre-Kindergarten Program with all interested facilities. To be considered for participation in the program sites must:

- Currently hold a four or five-star rated license.
- Have classroom space to accommodate a minimum of 9 NC Pre-Kindergarten students.
- Be willing to operate a 6 ½-hour school day and follow the Rockingham County Schools calendar.
- Hire a lead teacher with a Birth-Kindergarten teaching license OR a minimum of a Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education (or related field) with a willingness to work towards obtaining a Birth-Kindergarten teacher license.

During the information session, staff will be available to answer questions regarding the program. The Partnership is currently planning for the 2022-2023 school year. Currently there are 19 NC Pre-K Sites & 24 classrooms in the county. The sites currently participating in the program, who remain in compliance, will have first priority for participation in the 2022-2023 school year.

Please contact the NC Pre-K Coordinator at 336-552-0468 or adinat@rockinghamkids.org by Thursday, March 3rd if you plan to attend or if you have additional questions.

Once you register to attend, you will receive the link to log into the meeting.

This meeting is required for ALL new sites interested in applying for NC Pre-K slots for the 2022-2023 school year.
